

25X1

REPORT NO.

SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

25X1

2. The Director of the Institute in 1949 was Mr. Bercovici (fnu), an engineer.

SECRET

STATE #	X	NAVY #	X	NSRB	DISTRIBUTION
ARMY #	X	AIR #	X	FBI	ORR/ST	Y

SECRET

25X1

-2-

4. During 1949-50, approximately 300 people (mostly engineers) were employed by the Institute. [redacted] in 1952 the strength of the Institute has reached 600-700 employees. Very few clerical personnel work here; most are engineers and technicians.

25X1

5. [redacted] In 1949 the following were part of the entire organization:

25X1

(a) Service of Thermal Machines (Serviciul de Masini Termice). [redacted] one employee of the service; he is mechanical engineer Rotaru (fnu) who was born about 1920. [redacted]

25X1

(b) Service of Lines (Serviciul de Linii). Chief: Stoenescu (fnu), an electrical engineer, [redacted]

25X1

(c) Hydroelectric Service (Serviciul Hydroelectric). Chief: Professor Pavel Dorin, [redacted]

Professor Cristea Mateescu, employed in the Hydroelectric Service, taught hydraulics in the civil engineering faculty of the Bucharest Polytechnic University. [redacted]

25X1

[redacted] the Hydroelectric Service has a sub-section called the Service of Dams (Serviciul de Baraje).

(d) Construction Service (Serviciul de Constructii). Chief: Doicescu (fnu), an architect who has been connected with the Gas and Electricity Company of Bucharest. [redacted]

25X1

(e) Electrical Installation Service (Serviciul de Instalatii Electrice) [redacted]

25X1

[redacted] worked primarily on preliminary electrotechnical projects designs. [redacted]

25X1

Chief: Solomon (fnu), Administrative Chief and an electrical engineer. [redacted]

SECRET

SECRET

25X1

-3-

Engineers

25X1

- (1) Paul Dimo, an electrical engineer and the most capable man in this section.

25X1

- (2) Draganescu, (fnu), an electrical engineer who studied in Paris.

25X1

- (3) Edgar Adler, an electrical engineer, who graduated from Bucharest Polytechnic in 1949.

25X1

- (4) Coca Clieger, an electrical engineer.

- (5) Manfred Stein, an electrical engineer.

25X1

- (6) Vintilescu (fnu), an electrical engineer who graduated from Bucharest Polytechnic in 1949.

25X1

25X1

- (7) Anatol Sevastru, an electrical engineer.

25X16. [redacted] Professor Dinculescu (fnu) has, since 1950, been the chief of one of the services at the Institute.

25X1

-end-

SECRET